If you're like me, life is 10% riding the wave and 90% pushing my body to its limits trying to achieve my dreams. There is a culture that runs deep between Project AD customers, and I love it. But even we're not immune to the sh*t life likes to drop on us from time-to-time, and having a solid defensive strategy in place is common sense. That's why our new Immune+ formula is a common sense addition to any intense athletes nutritional regime, to ensure you're safeguarded against what life throws at you.

OUR IMMUNE SYSTEMS ARE UNDER ATTACK.

Rampant toxins permeate our air. The food we eat clogs our arteries. And the lifestyle's we're forced to endure go against the very nature of our primitive being.

Life's changed - get over it. You either learn to endure, or grab the bull by its horns and say "f*ck that - I'm made for something different". Glad to see you're on the same wavelength as us.

Our immune systems are our most precious defence mechanisms against the sh*t life throws at us every day. When they're down, it's akin to a car without an engine. Useless.

But as the miles accumulate on the highway, the engine slowly breaks down, day-by-day. The relentless grind life thrusts on all of us has a similar effect on our immune system.

And like a car slowly dismantling, our immune systems gradually diminish as well. One day, they might not even start.

But just like a car engine, we can fuel our immune systems with the right material to promote longevity and optimal performance. And that's what our new Immune+ formula does.

This is not just another "Vitamin C" formula to protect against free radicals. This is a serious, scientifically advanced formula for the modern elite athlete to fight against the worst life has to throw at us.

The AD Immunity Complex helps bulletproof your body's first line of defence with 2,300mg of the world's most heavily researched ingredients to fight off sickness, protect our organs and ensure longevity.

Immunity+ is further fortified with our AD Cellular Support Matrix: containing the revolutionary OmniMin AC, a powerful ingredient to ensure pristine cell function so that your body becomes a self-generating, healing machine on autopilot.

You've heard that attack is the first line of defence. But when the attack fails, you need something to fall back on. That's Immunity+, and any well-rounded arsenal needs a two-pronged approach to win this war we're all a part of.
